First Healthcare Compliance to Exhibit at the 2024 ASCENT Educational Conference, Launching New Compliance Management Suite

The suite, a product of the collaboration between Panacea Healthcare Solutions and its wholly owned subsidiary First Healthcare Compliance, is not just another compliance tool.

ST. PAUL, Minnesota, September 2024—Panacea Healthcare Solutions, a leading provider of compliance and financial services across the full continuum of care, is excited to announce the joint launch of a unique compliance program management suite for multi-specialty physician groups at the ASCENT Educational Conference, September 18–20 at the Main Hotel, in Norfolk, VA. The suite is a meticulously designed solution that addresses the unique needs of multi-specialty physician groups, offering a range of innovative features that enhance healthcare compliance in a way that no other suite does.

BreAnn Meadows, President of Revenue Integrity Services, shared her excitement about the product launch: "Our goal at First Healthcare Compliance is to empower physician groups with the tools they need to succeed in a challenging healthcare environment. The launch of our Compliance Management Suite at the conference reflects our commitment to supporting physician groups as they navigate regulatory changes and enhance their operations."

The Compliance Management Suite integrates three powerful tools, each addressing critical aspects of healthcare compliance management, from regulatory oversight to risk management and revenue cycle optimization. This suite offers a complete solution to help physician groups manage compliance efficiently while strengthening their financial performance in an increasingly complex regulatory landscape.

Karl Hellerich, Executive Vice President of Business Development, emphasized the suite's potential to address industry challenges: "Physician groups face mounting pressures to maintain compliance while ensuring optimal patient care. Our Compliance Management Suite offers a streamlined solution that helps them meet regulatory requirements and improve operational efficiency, ultimately boosting their financial health."

During the 2024 ASCENT Educational Conference, attendees will have the opportunity to experience demonstrations of the Compliance Management Suite at First Healthcare's exhibit booth. The First Healthcare team will be available to discuss the suite's capabilities and offer personalized insights on how it can benefit physician groups of all sizes.
